

Your Home for the summer...

Cheley Colorado Camps is located 4 miles from the town of Estes Park, Colorado; and 15 minutes from Rocky Mountain National Park. The area is very mountainous with abundant wildlife and wildflowers.

The elevation at Cheley is 8200 feet, the climate is sunny and dry with occasional afternoon rain showers. While days can be very warm and sunny, it can cool off fast and be cool in the evenings. Check the Suggestions On What To Bring in this packet for advice on appropriate clothing.

Specific Directions to both Land of Peaks and the Trail's End Ranches can be linked to from the website.
